

An electricity market fit for renewables

Considering design options for the electricity market post 2020

Friday 17 June 2016, 09 :00 – 14 :00

L42 Business Centre, Rue de la Loi 42, 1000 Bruxelles

AGENDA

9:00-9:30	Welcome coffee
9:30 – 9:40	Introduction by the project coordinator Andrei Morch - Research Scientist, SINTEF Energy Research, Norway
9:40-10:20	Implementation of new market design options in Europe with large shares of Renewables Daniel Fraile – Senior Grids Analyst, WindEurope, Belgium
10:20 – 10:50	Market design in the long term: high shares of renewables penetration and security of supply Aurèle Fontaine – Chargé d’Etudes, Market models &amp; economic studies and Frédéric Galmiche - Market Design Engineer, RTE, France
10:50 - 11:00	Q&A first part
11:00 – 11:30	Coffee break
11:30 – 11:50	Presentation of the results of the stakeholder consultation on market design launched in May Ove Wolfgang, Research Scientist, SINTEF Energy Research
11:50 – 13:00	Panel debate “Guidelines for new market design options” Speakers: European Commission - DG Energy, Eurelectric, German Ministry of Energy – confirmed; ACER, ENTSO-e contacted, to be confirmed Session moderated by James Watson , CEO of SolarPower Europe Q&A session included
13:00 – 14:00	Standing lunch

